Preposition:

Definition:

A Preposition is a word or a group of words used in a sentence before the noun, pronoun, or phrase to express the location, place, time, distance, and direction to complete. There are eight different types of prepositions.

examples: above, at, around, about, between, below, behind, into, near, in, on, of, to, toward, under, within, with etc.*

Basically there are five types of prepositions :

Simple Prepositions

Simple prepositions are words like at, for, in, off, on, over, and under. These common prepositions can be used to describe a location, time or place.

Some examples of common prepositions used in sentences are:

- He sat on the chair.
- There is some milk in the fridge.
- She was hiding under the table.
- The cat jumped off the counter.

Double Prepositions

Double prepositions are two simple prepositions used together, often indicating direction.

Some examples are into, upon, onto, out of, from within.

- Once upon a time, there was a beautiful princess.
- The baby climbed onto the table.
- It is up to us to find the answer.
- The loud noise came from within the stadium.
- She never leaves without her phone.

Compound Prepositions

Compound prepositions (or complex prepositions) consist of two or more words, usually a simple preposition and another word, to convey location.

Some examples are in addition to, on behalf of, and in the middle of.

- She sat across from Marie.
- I attended the meeting on behalf of my company.
- We were in the middle of the storm.
- He has gym class in addition to his regular classes today.

Participle Prepositions

Participle prepositions have endings such as -ed and -ing.

Examples are words such as considering, during, concerning, provided.

- She is interested in anything concerning horses.
- He works one job during the day and another at night.
- The dog kept following him home.
- All the neighbors were there including the new one.
- The principal was asking questions regarding her behavior.

Phrase Prepositions

Phrase prepositions (or prepositional phrases) include a preposition, an object, and the object's modifier.

Examples include phrases like on time, at home, before class, and on the floor.

- I will get to the conference on time.
- The baseball game was canceled after the heavy rain.
- John found his homework under the bed.
- The children loved the gifts from their grandparents.
- He succeeded with a little help.

NOTES:-----

Using Prepositions

- ✓ Prepositions are words that show relationships.
 - ✓ A sentence would not make sense without the use of a preposition.
 - ✓ There are different types of prepositions used in the English language that not only add detail but make a sentence complete.
 - ✓ Prepositions are used to show location, time, direction, cause and possession.
